

HE is RISEN INDEED.

In this four-session Bible study, apologist and New Testament scholar Jeremiah J. Johnston closely examines the events of Easter weekend, presenting four reasons why you can trust in the resurrection of Jesus as a historical fact and place your hope in Him to save yourself and others. # POTENTIAL INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

- If Christianity is all about faith, why does it matter if there is or isn't proof of Jesus's resurrection?
- Are Christians who believe in the resurrection different from those who don't?
- What type of proof of Jesus's resurrection are you offering in this Bible study?
- Is there anything that still requires a bit of faith to accept it as "proof"?
- What are the known facts about the resurrection that even skeptics can agree are true? What do you think is the most compelling evidence of the resurrection?
- Where were the videos for this Bible study filmed? And what was your favorite part about the shoot?
- What is your hope for the people who participate in this Bible study?
- What is your response to people who say the Bible is not a truthful document or the Bible can't be used to corroborate other parts of the Bible?
- Do you think this study can change a skeptic's mind about Jesus?
- The topic of the third session is The Resurrection Makes Sense of Suffering. Can you briefly explain what you mean by that?
- What's the difference between the Bible study and book version of Body of Proof?
